● There are no administration fees, management fees, no extra charges of any type when you contribute, convert, redeem, transfer or allocate money, assets and resources, including any and all contributions to stockpile and deploy capital with the MAX RSVP Series Accounts.

- The two major account MAX RSVP options accommodate people, situations and choices are :
  1. RCOO-Reserved, Conditional sign-up and Open Options
  2. RDSO-Reserved, Dedicated sign-up and Secured Options

● The BDG MAX RSVP RDSO option has more conversion options than the RCOO, as conversion options may also be directed to the EIG Accounts+Portfolios. This feature enables new CVI-BDG members only extra conversion options and mobility without the extra EIG account required;

● BDG members may acquire other CVI membership options and still have the benefit of conversion options in both the BGD and EIG Accounts+Portfolios, (CVI-Entrepreneur Infrastructure Group) which is a great deal for anyone. There is no limit on the acquisition of other membership options.

● From a new member point of view the MAX RSVP RCOO and RDSO Options offers maximum options, reward and flexibility as you spend time reviewing other CVI-Options, making and working a plan of action and enjoying your success. Starting here as a minimum makes everything else easier, streamlined, comfortable and convenient as you confidently venture into new territory with a more synchronized and unified approach enables deal making, overall success, relationships and prosperity for everyone in the Made in Canada renaissance.

● From a CVI point of view, increased flexibility and time for research, planning and financial transactions is an advantage. Being involved, with a new clean page for a fresh start in building a greater quality of life and an alternate reality, all by options, choice and action creates a lot of energy. None of this is possible at your big box store that has next to nothing Made in Canada.

More MAX RSVP advantages :

- Options that are powerful, exciting, adventurous, challenging and rewarding, aligned with your values, ideals and practical every day life. The satisfaction of knowing your assets, resources, time and money are creating jobs, careers, technology, products and services Made in Canada is very reassuring. As a private CVI-Member/Co-trustee with an effective vote, control and power, that is self-directed for what you want, like and need, it is easier with the right tools and organization to exercise your options, make progress and create an alternate reality experience efficiently.

- You can have a big sigh of relief looking at a brand new tomorrow just as you know that the sun will rise. We do not have vague all encompassing we can do anything we want with your money because we are doing all the thinking for you deals. No money exports or investing in liquidation of Canadian industry, companies and jobs. Resources here are directed to what you want to promote, believe in, get involved with, develop and acquire, to secure all kinds of amazing options, VIP options, revenue streams and of course the products, services and special orders available.

Synchronized and Unified :

- Concerning members contributing to the MAX RSVP account and the corresponding portfolios, industries, companies; the immediate or future demand for products, services and options, including development and acquisition options, requires more innovative business and capital solutions.

The practical task oriented challenge and problem solving logistics to advance forward by focused consistent action is possible strategy, vision and co-operative endeavours. With provisions to expand or redefine an operating environment, a greater awareness, competence and supporting capabilities that amplify more convenient logistics, enables and solidifies greater assertiveness, confidence and trust for all participants.

This vastly exceeds and excels way beyond conventional seller buyer experience with a much more creative development and acquisition dynamics to be possible. A greater panorama of awareness and strategic thinking, project management, mutually beneficial and co-operative involvement exists. Naturally, a vast range of portfolios, entities, series, type, class or other options exist and supporting materials expand rather exponentially and becomes more and more exciting as the big picture and puzzle is made up of all kinds of incredible detail that you will not want to miss out on, and rather be a valuable part of the solution that makes great things possible.

The main focus provides a fast, flexible and profitable arena of action, without investment, securities or other elements that may be selected in the future. As a member continues to refine, focus and direct resources, more specific products, services or other options are enabled. Those resources are directed accordingly and can be successfully applied to any aspect or stage of an enterprise and provides a much greater degree of Made in Canada logistics to be possible. That's great news.

So, congratulations on even thinking about such a noble endeavour that can transform your quality of life and promote the Made in Canada renaissance, simply and powerfully, with a sense of team spirit. As you step forward, you will surely advance to the winners circle. You will be in the arena with friends, allies and everything that is important to you. The rest is up to you, know what you like and want, focus on it, utilize the right logistics to make it possible.
