Strategic Account - Strategic Enterprise Development Inc.

The Strategic Account is a non-investment account utilized for personal and business transactions for financial and non-financial contributions in trust, and controlled by the Private Executive Trustee and the Member Co-trustee. This is utilized provisionally, and may be structured with various terms, conditions, rights, options or otherwise, that promotes, creates, enables, augments or amplifies; private enterprise, technology, products and services with corresponding capital structure, securities, executive summaries, investment, development, acquisition, leasing, conditional sales contracts, co-development, employment, business options, and other opportunities and agreements.

The Strategic Account is discretionary in fixed or variable for temporary, intermediate and long term financial and non-financial resource allocation options, and may have various rates of return, dividends, compensation, rights, conditions, bonus features or otherwise, including pass through securities benefits, capital structure, ownership, voting and control, and also enable flexibility and options to be allocated to a general or specific entity, capital structure, technology, product, service, business combination, joint or co-development project, transfer to or conversion to other designated entity, securities, initial organization, IPO or private enterprise, program or project.

The Strategic Account simplifies resource allocation decision and enables a greater range of options in addition to more time available to redirect those resources to those companies, entities or otherwise promoted by the Capital Vault Incorporated CVIx Advanced Projects, also know as Strategic Enterprise Development Inc., in accordance with those values, mission, vision and corresponding documentation and mutual agreement.
