

Organization

Capital Vault Incorporated is a private Canadian federal corporation, dedicated to innovative business and capital solutions, founded and operated by CEO Michael Comeau. The essence of the company is based on an everyday practical philosophy, utilizing a custom mix of wealth creation variables, entities and jurisdictions to stockpile and deploy private assets and resources. The CVI-Options are central to the organization, having segmented but unified focus on very specific industry sectors with an obsession to creating companies, job, careers, technology, products and services with a custom made high quality and performance Made in Canada brand. Providentially, private equity and/or debt instruments for private Canadian companies and the parallel universe of contributions, various documentation and agreements, accounts, business options or other excellent tools all generate more flexibility and opportunity to achieve goals and mission tasking. The Portfolio Spectrum, business combinations, joint ventures and any useful type of entity and agreement offers a full range of potential to get involved in dynamic membership options, capabilities, opportunities and high powered advantage to help members start building the most exciting future imaginable.

Our portfolio is national in vision. CVI and the CVI-Options are the organization, a foundation built on true values, with an altruistic spirit of service in creating opportunity that is very practical, doable and rewarding. Our timeless pursuit of truth, beauty and goodness, emphasizing quality solidly built to last applies to everything. This shared vision with enhanced faculties of being, doing, having and experiencing are influenced by our conscious will, choices and actions. Our super conscious realities of inspiration, thinking and acting, operating from a higher perspective in the background continues to regenerate our positive mental attitude, new and expanded capabilities, understanding, energy, enthusiasm and custom opportunities for each of us as we initiate, respond, take action and trust in ourselves and the universe looking out for us. The survival values of our eternal quest and destination, golden character, sterling personality, with gems and jewels of everyday experiences, relationships and opportunities that are exciting, challenging and rewarding are vital like the air we breathe! Everything happens for a reason, even if we don't understand it at the time.

Our nation building endeavour and mission tasking includes our ambitious goal to create 50,000 jobs within 5 years and 100,000 jobs in 10 years. We envision "family rated" work that enables us to fulfill our responsibilities, live our dreams, contribute to our communities, with more of the Made in Canada that we all can be proud of. Yes some of us are old fashioned, and there is nothing wrong with that! Employment, career, entrepreneur and enterprise options, our vote of confidence, cheerful enthusiasm, mutual respect, co-operation, pride in ones' work, shared responsibility, accountability, vision, planning and thinking, more challenge, teamwork and reward are just some of the great things we can build together!
